Dawn Jenkins Celebrates 15 Years at UF/TREEO Center

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Dawn Jenkins recently celebrated 15 years at the University of Florida Center for Training, Research and Education for Environmental Occupations.

“Throughout her 15 years of service, Dawn has displayed an exemplary commitment to providing our students with an outstanding educational experience and top-notch service,” said UF/TREEO Director William Engel, Ph.D., CET.

Jenkins is the assistant director of special programs and coordinates numerous conferences every year. She also oversees UF/TREEO Center’s solid waste courses and maintains the Solid Waste Database for the Florida Department of Environmental Protection.

Jenkins began coordinating courses at UF/TREEO in the water quality section. She holds a master’s degree in health education from the University of Florida.
